What time does the program start on Friday?
The program begins on Friday, January 11th, at 11am. Students are able to get into their rooms on Thursday as well if that works best for scheduling flights and other transportation.

Do you have a schedule with topics and times?
The schedule is evolving as presenters and events are planned but I will be posting the event schedule during the first week of December so check back then. The entire weekend is packed full of engaging and interactive workshops and presentations a variety of opportunities for each student to gain additional career and personal skills, tools, and resources.

Do students get to pick and choose between presentations?
Yes, there will be at least two, if not three, events held at the same time and each student can decide which topics are of most interest.

How many students attended last year?
70 students attended last year-- The program is capped at 100 students and that is always our goal for registration.

Do students move back into their rooms early for the program, or is there separate housing?
Students are able get to into their rooms beginning on Thursday. Just be sure to write your building and room number on the registration form.

Does the cost of enrollment include meals?
The cost includes all meals-- breakfast, lunch, dinner, including our continuous hospitality stand (juice, muffins, and veggies/dip) all times throughout the day. The cost also includes all speakers and facilitators, materials, and the transportation to and from the Networking reception on Saturday night.

What is the deadline for signing up?
The deadline will be December 14th, 2012.

I hope these commonly asked questions and answers are helpful. Please feel free to email me with any additional questions or stop in anytime to meet with me as well-- my regular office hours are Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 9am-3pm.
