

National French Week

La Semaine du Français

November 5-11, 2014

A weeklong celebration of all things FRENCH!

You don't need to be a French student to participate in these exciting events!

Wednesday Nov. 5 – Tuesday Nov 11 (game ends)

*Bracelet Game

When you see any faculty/staff members wearing a blue and white "J'aime le français" bracelet, speak French with them and you'll win a raffle ticket. Get a set (or more!) of different colored raffle tickets (the three colors in play: GREEN, RED, and BLUE) and enter a drawing for cool prizes at the end of French Week! See details at the bottom of the flyer!

Thursday Nov. 6, 10:00pm-12:00am

*French and Francophone music on WMUH (91.7)

Tune in and sample music from all corners of the francophone world!

Friday Nov. 7, 2-3pm

*Waiter/Waitress Tray Race, Front Circle (rain or shine)

Want to show off your waitering skills? Or try being a French waiter for a day? Grab a team of 4, dress imaginatively for the occasion and come join the French Club's Waiter/Waitress Tray Race! Cool prizes for both winning team AND most creative costume! Sign up at Ettinger 101C by 4pm Wednesday, Nov. 5.

Monday Nov. 10, 4:30-6:00pm

*Cheese tasting, Hoffman House

Bring your favorite cheese for a potluck cheese tasting!

Tuesday Nov. 11, 12-7pm

*Crêpes sale, Seegers Union

Enjoy a fresh crêpe made by members of the French Club - only $2 each and you can add your own toppings! (Proceeds benefit Médecins Sans Frontières's response to the Ebola epidemic)

GAME: Turn in your green, red and blue raffle ticket bundles at the end of the day, Tuesday Nov. 11 to the box in front of Ettinger 101C. Make sure to write down your contact information: NAME and EMAIL. Winners will be announced on Wednesday, Nov. 12.
