

NATIONAL FRENCH WEEK LA SEMAINE DU FRANÇAIS Nov. 7-11, 2011

A WEEKLONG CELEBRATION OF ALL THINGS FRENCH

YOU DON'T NEED TO BE A FRENCH STUDENT TO PARTICIPATE IN THESE EXCITING EVENTS!

 When you see any faculty/staff members wearing a blue and white "J'aime le français" bracelet, speak French with them and you'll win a raffle ticket ("carte verte") for cool prizes at the end of the week!

Tuesday Nov. 8, 11-7

• Crêpes sale, 11-7 pm, Seegers Union

Enjoy a fresh crêpe made by members of the French Club - only $2 each and you can add your own toppings! (proceeds benefit Partners In Health in Haiti)

Wednesday Nov. 9, 9-11:30

• Paris je t'aime, 9-11:30 pm, The Red Door

See why people love Paris as much as they do with this popular French movie, a compilation of 18 different short films showing what love is in the "City of Lights"! Feel free to come and go as you wish.

Thursday Nov. 10

• Marie-Célie Agnant, Haitian-Québécois author, 7 pm, Empie Theater

Hear about our guest speaker's experiences growing up in Haiti as part of the Arts and Memory panel for the Center for Ethics program.

 Turn in your green raffle tickets at the end of the day on Friday to the box in front of Ettinger 101B (make sure to put your contact information on the back!). Winners will be announced on Monday Nov. 14.
