

Je me souviens: Memories of a Mainer with Quebec in his Veins

a performance by Michael Parent

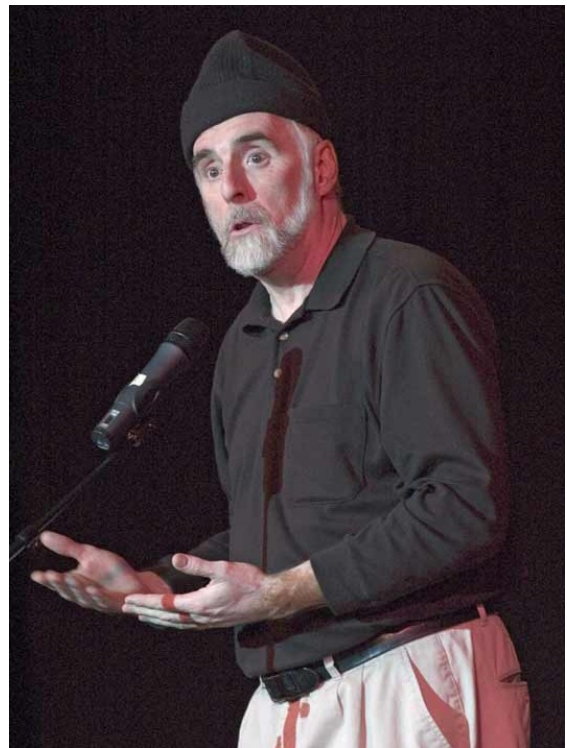

Co-sponsored by the Center for Ethics, Student Government and the French Club

Monday, April 11

Recital Hall, Center for the Arts

7:30 p.m.

Free and open to the public.
A reception will follow.

From New England to New Zealand, and many places in between, Parent, a native Mainer of French-Canadian descent, has performed as a storyteller and singer, in both English and French, since 1977. His performance will include excerpts from his one man shows as well as folk songs from the Franco-American tradition performed in both French and English.
